

HONESTY

Choosing to be < TRUTHFUL > in whatever you say & do

WEEK
THREE
K-5TH GRADE

READ PROVERBS 10:9

DAY 1

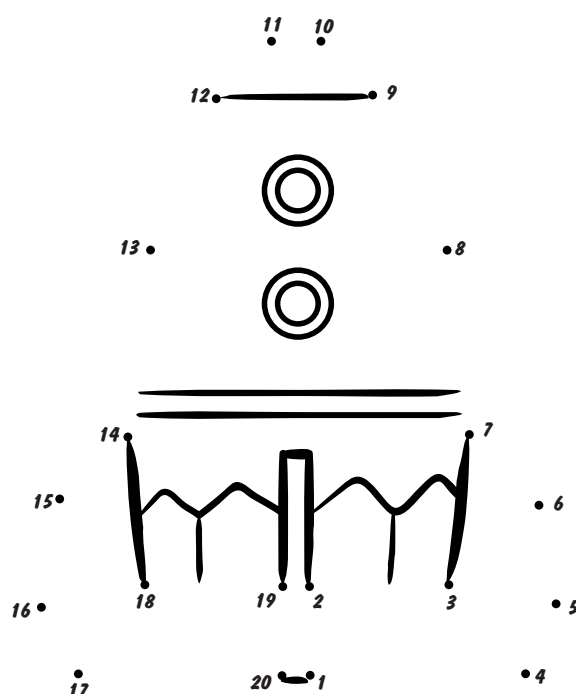

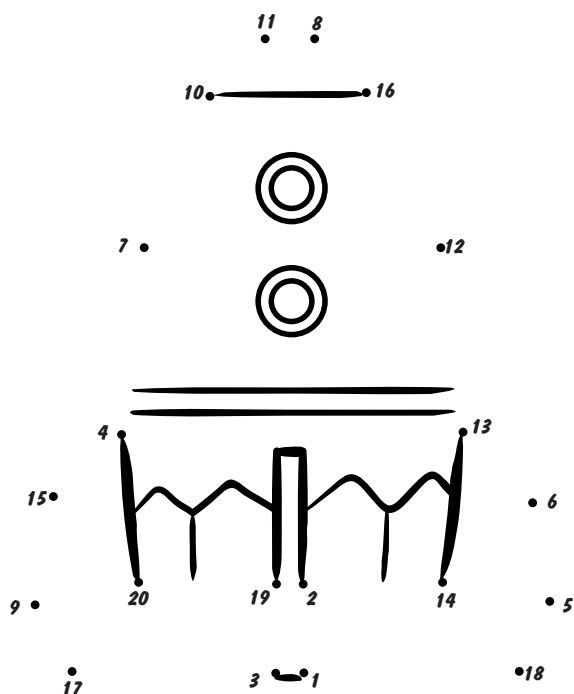

If you have some masking tape, make a straight line on the floor. (If you don't, no big deal—just clear some space to make sure you have clearance to walk a straight line.) Now walk down the line. No problem, right? Now, try veering from the path by hopping back and forth as fast as you can, with one foot on either side of the line, making it as crazy, crooked and fast as you can. How did that feel? Probably a little out of control, right? Hopefully you didn't fall! When you are honest, it's like you're walking a clear, straight path through life. But when you're dishonest, things can get crazy, and you might even get hurt.

KNOW that honesty keeps you safe.

READ PROVERBS 11:3

DAY 2

Solve the two puzzles below by connecting the dots in order.

What happened when the numbers were all out of order? Things got a little bit messy, didn't they? But when the numbers were right, it was clear what you should do, and the end result was a lot better. Being honest is always the best path, and things will work out better in the end too!

ASK God to help you to be guided by honesty.

READ 1 PETER 3:10

DAY 3

When are you most tempted to lie? Is it when you think you might get in trouble for something? Is it when you want something you know you're not allowed to have? Write down a couple of situations here.

---

---

Now, get a dry erase marker and stand in front of the mirror. Right where the reflection of your mouth is, draw a big "X." Anytime you're in one of those situations you wrote about, when you're tempted to lie, come back to this mirror, stand in front of the "X," and ask God to help you keep your lips from lying.

KNOW that lying to protect yourself will end up hurting you in the end.

READ PSALM 112:5

DAY 4

The vowels are missing below. Fill them in to read an important message.

G___D TH___NGS W___LL C___M___ T___ TH___S___ WH___ ___R___
F___R ___N ___V___RYTH___NG TH___Y D___.

Have you ever been told to share something you have, so you lie about how much you have so you don't have to share as much? Sometimes we are dishonest and unfair because we're afraid we won't have enough. But the truth is, if you are honest and fair with others, good things will come to you.

LISTEN to what God says about being honest and don't worry about having enough.

When you <LIE>
to help yourself,
you hurt yourself
instead.
